2.0 Standing Items
2.1 Councilor Updates (5 minutes)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Zoning Bylaw 20001 One Year Review came to Council on June 2, 2025. Administration presented information highlighting key learnings from the past year. Some of the recommended changes were around the design considerations for row housing within mature communities. Council recommended for a public hearing. - Councillor Salvador will report back to CEYC with information on the Edmonton Transit Service Fare Policy C451H Review.
2.2 Chair Updates (5 mins) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Edmonton Police Commission Update Recruitment 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Administration has arranged a future meeting with the Edmonton Police Commission for the Policy subcommittee meeting on June 23, 2025. This is an opportunity to ask questions on what happens within the police commission. - CEYC Policy subcommittee members to create a document for a list of questions to send ahead of time to the Police Commission. - An invite will be sent out to all CEYC members. - There will be 3 to 4 vacancies available for a mid term recruitment. Recruitment will close on June 22, 2025. - Share the recruitment profile with your contact lists.

- Two term for Co-Chair positions
 - Motion

- Discussion around elected Co-Chair positions to run for a 2 year time to reflect the 2 year terms from the Office of the City Clerk's.

- Pros: better stability for the Executive and would provide more time to accomplish goals. Executive could plan for the upcoming year in the summer.
- Cons: CEYC has a high turnover rate and is unpredictable due to the age of the committee members. This may prove to be a barrier for participation and not allow new members opportunities.

MOTION: A. Ahmed moves to implement a two year term for all elected positions in CEYC for years starting in 2026 - 2028.

2nd: M. Sandhu

Abstain: A. Raina

Defeated (u)

- An opportunity for CEYC to co-host a mayoral forum with the UESU. This would be held in October approximately 10 -15 days before the election. They do not require any monetary amounts, just to use CEYC's logo and for CEYC to promote the event.

- They would set aside a number of seats for CEYC.

- CEYC is encouraged to send questions.

- Event may be 18 years + due to the location of the event (Meyer Horowitz building) with a reception after the forum. Only the top 2 to 3 mayoral candidates will be invited.

MOTION: A. Raina motions to host a CEYC general assembly on July 2, 2025.

2nd: A. Ahmed

Carried (u)

	ACTION: A. Raina will come to the July 2, 2025 general assembly with more information on the event for CEYC discussion.
