

Neighbourhood Empowerment Team

Staff Profile

Brad Khalaj
Community Safety Liaison
City of Edmonton

Brad is the newest addition to the NET family. He has a multi-disciplinary educational background and experience. He has worked in five countries, with different NGOs and international organizations, including UNODC. Brad's diverse work experiences include working as a legal advisor, human rights officer, project manager, and an instructor at various universities. He is a polyglot and loves to travel and learn about other cultures. A nomad at heart, he has lived in 12 countries in his life-time.