

Neighbourhood Empowerment Team

Staff Profile

Jenna Pilot
Supervisor, Community Safety
City of Edmonton

Jenna has been a practicing Social Worker for 18 years, including starting her career with the city as a Community Safety Liaison Downtown with the City of Edmonton. Jenna now has the privilege of leading Community Safety, which includes the Community Property Safety Team, Community Outreach Transit Team, the Body Rub Centre and Adult Entertainment Support Team, the Neighbourhood Empowerment Team, Community After Incident Response and the Healthy Streets Operation Centre.

Jenna is passionate about creating diverse, safe spaces for all Edmontontians to live, work and play and believes in engaging citizens, strong collaboration, listening to those with lived experience and empowering communities is at the center of positive change.