

Neighbourhood Empowerment Team Staff Profile

Lane Gagnon
Youth Liaison, The Family Centre

Lane completed their Bachelor of Education at the University of Alberta in 2010 and has worked with young people in multiple capacities for over seventeen years. They have spent over seven years as a Youth Liaison with the Neighbourhood Empowerment Team (NET), where they have been able to support youth, community members, partners, and stakeholders to create and implement sustainable and empowering solutions to crime and disorder in Edmonton. Much of Lane's work as a Youth Liaison has focused on the 2SLGBTQ+ community, young people experiencing homelessness, and the development of multiple resources and training opportunities.

Lane has also worked with youth who engage in high-risk behaviours, with the goal of supporting them to realize and reach their true potential. Lane believes in the power of relationship building and bringing people together to create sustainable change.
