

2024-25 Community Safety and Well-being Collaboration Grant Recipients

Edmonton

CSWB Pillar(s)	Name of Organization	Project & Description	Funding Amount
Collaboration Stream (2024)
Anti-Racism, Equitable Policies, Procedures and Guidelines	PolicyWise for Children and Families	Building Community Capacity and Leadership in Race-Based and Identity Data Collection to Support Anti-Racism: The Race-Based Data Table is a collaborative table of practitioners, system representatives, non-profits, and community members in Edmonton interested in working towards relevant and ethical data that actively contributes to reducing systemic racism.	$181,875
Collaboration Stream (2025)
Well-being	Alberta Alliance Who Educates and Advocates Responsibly (AAWEAR)	Multicultural ConneXt: The Multicultural ConneXt program is a collaborative between AAWEAR and the University of Alberta's Inner City Health and Wellness Program (ICHWP) and will support the well-being of Black, Indigenous and people of colour.	$250,000
Well-being, Anti-Racism	Edmonton Centre for Race and Culture	Building Systems for Collective Accountability: This project aims to reshape leadership, dismantle systemic barriers, and empower marginalized communities to identify challenges and develop solutions for greater racial equity and accountability.	$212,682
Well-being, Safe and Inclusive Spaces	Rainbow Alliance For Youth in Edmonton (RAYE)	Collaboration and Community Supports: RAYE is launching a new program to help queer youth access necessary services and enhance safety and well-being of 2SLGBTQ+ youth in Edmonton.	$250,000