

Neighbourhood Empowerment Team

Staff Profile

Maggie Farbrother
Community Safety Liaison
City of Edmonton
Southeast Division

Maggie comes to the NET team with a number of years experience working with vulnerable populations, particularly children and families. Maggie has always had a passion for collaborative work in addressing social concerns, including crime and disorder. She holds a Masters in Criminology and Sociolegal studies and brings a unique perspective to the team. Maggie has always appreciated the importance of data and evidence driven work, and the importance of this in working with the community for community driven solutions.

In her free time Maggie enjoys spending time outdoors and hiking with her dogs.
