CRITERIA FOR RESTRICTED RESIDENTIAL PARKING PERMIT

Check edmonton.ca/ResidentialParking for the most up-to-date information

1. All applicants must provide a valid driver's licence with a residential address in the parking restricted area.
2. If applying for an Annual Permit, please provide motor vehicle registration documents.
3. If applying for a Temporary Permit, please provide the following:
 - For a business vehicle:
 - A letter of authorization, on company letterhead, from the business indicating that the vehicle to be used for business purposes
 - Other verifiable documentation such as a utility bill with the address in the name of the resident
 - Permit issued for specific vehicle only and not to the business that owns it
 - For a vehicle registered to someone else and from a different address:
 - Motor vehicle registration documents
 - Letter of authorization from the registered owner indicating approval to use the vehicle
 - Other verifiable documentation like a utility bill with the address in the name of the resident
 - For a vehicle registered to resident and out-of-city or out-of-province address:
 - Motor vehicle registration documents
 - Other verifiable documentation like a utility bill with the address in the name of the resident

★ A registered vehicle must be identified to issue a permit to an address.
★ Parking in restricted areas is a violation for residents if a valid permit is not displayed.

The City of Edmonton Traffic Bylaw, Bylaw 5590:

Section 37: A vehicle shall not be parked on a highway in any location where a permit to park is required unless a valid and subsisting permit is clearly displayed on the vehicle.

Section 37.1: A vehicle shall not be parked on a highway in any location where a permit to park is required during major stadium events unless a valid and subsisting permit is clearly displayed on the vehicle.

PARKING ON PRIVATE PROPERTY

Property owners selling or providing parking spaces for stadium patrons on privately owned property, like a back yard, front yard, or driveway, is strictly prohibited in residential zones. A development permit and a business license may be required for this type of activity. Municipal Enforcement Officers will be in the community during stadium events to specifically deal with illegal parking lots and businesses operating without a business license. The minimum fine for operating without a business license is $500, and for operating without a development permit is $1000. For more information, please contact 311.
